BACK AND CAB LICENSES.

Mayor's Marsaal McDermott last week issued 433 licenses and received therefor $1,955. The time to renew special and hackney coach and cab licenses will expire with this week. Marshal McDermott has issued orders to the inspectors to rigidly inspect all public vehicles. He says that he will not renew any hackney coach or cab licenses unless the vehicles are in good repair and the horses serviceable. He has refused to renew the licenses for a number of night hacks because they are unfit for public use.

public use.

ANOTHER WOMAN WHO WILL NOT TALK.

Officer Rodgers at 2 a. m. yesterday arrested a woman in Twenty-third-st., near Eleventh-ave., who refused to answer his questions. At the station she would not tell her name nor explain why she was on the street at that hour. In the Jefterson Market Court she would only say that she was Mrs. Addie Lewis and had had some trouble with her husban I who was a commercial traveller. She was dressed in black and wore several handsome rings and other articles of jewelry. Ju tic: Gorman sent the prisoner back to the station.

BROOKLYN. Abraham Douglass, the negro who is in Raymond Street jail charged with making a criminal assault on Mrs. Pauline Miller, late on Friday night attempted to hang himself by a rope made of strips of his bed clothing tied to the grating of his cell. He was discovered in time and cut down.

Precinct, will receive all offers for their relief.

Police Sergeant Cyrus K. Fickett was yesterday dismissed from the force by Police Commissioner Partridge for indulging in two drinks of whiskey and quinine by way of a tonic. Fickett formerly belonged to the police in this city, and resigned ander charges of insubordination. He was once convicted by General Jourdan of unnecessarily clubbing a prisoner, and narrowly escaped dismissal then.

Timothy Whelan, a boss longshoreman, of No. 33 North Sixth-st., complained before the Excise Commissioners yesterday of Edward Collery, a liquor seller, of No. 95, adjoining, for selling his wife brandy. He told a pitini story. He lived in New-York until last September, when he moved to Brocklyn. Several times he found his wife at home or in Collery's place drunk. She sometimes sent the children for liquor, after pawning household goods to raise money. Collery and his wife sold her a cupful of brandy for five cents. Collery's license was revoked at once.

Avenut Fleutic, a well-dressed young man of license was revoked at once.

August Fleutje, a well-dressed young man of twenty-seven years, was yesterday accused before Justice Nacher of having two wives at the same time. Mrs. Fleutje No. 2, formerly Miss Mary Meyer, was the complainant. The twain were made one last April, in the Hopkins Street German Church, and went to live in New-York. Seven years ago Fleutje married Miss Mary Lorens, at Brick Church, New-Jersey. They had four children, but all are dead. Both wives are willing to testify sgainst him. He was held in $1,500 bonds to appear on Tuesday.

The Congressional sub-Committee on Public

The Congressional sub-Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, composed of S. M. Stock-slager, of Indiana; James H. Hopkins, of Pennsyl vania, and E. Breitung, of Michigan, met again yesterday in the United States District-Attorney's rooms, at Montague and Clinton sts., to continue the investigation into the purchase of a Post Office site. A number of witnesses were examined, who testified to selling lots to Mr. Liebmann, and that the prices paid were as stated by him, and that there was no collusion in the matter. James M. Leavitt testified that $300,000 was enough for the property, that $408,000 was too much, and that the site was not suitable for a post office.

Officer Patrick Lynch, of the Fifth Precinct, was assaulted by a crowd of ruffiaus at north Secondst, and Union-ave., and severely beaten last night. He was taken to his home, No. 96 North Sixth-st. George Hewes and Joseph Armsted were arrested. Officer Wilson, while arresting John Donlan, at Johnson and Raymond sts., was knocked down by Philip Trainer. Both men were arrested.

A RECEPTION ON BOARD A STEAMSHIP. The new steamship Chateau Margaux, of the New-York and Bordeaux Steamship Line, was thrown New-York and Bordeaux Steamship Line, was thrown open for mspection yesterday at Prentice's Stores, Brooklyn. F. Le Bondanger, general passenger agent conducted the guests through the vessel. The Chateau Margaux is the new vessel of the Bordeaux Line, and is not only provided with every improvement for insuring comfort and safety at sea, but is elegantly fitted in her saloons, state-rooms and other appointments. The vessel was built under the supervision of the French Admiralty, and under such regulations for strength and stability as would warrant her being converted into a naval cruiser if required. She has especially fine lines of model that promise more than ordinary speed. The business of the line has grown so much that another vessel, the Chateau Yquem, is being built for the same service.

RAID ON A GAMBLING HOUSE.

Anthony Comstock, assisted by Detectives Oran, Baldwin, Ducret, and Officers Sinclair and Irvine, made a raid yesterday upon "Mike" Murray's gambling house No. 13 West Twenty-eighth-st. SEAL SKINS.

During the past month some of the heaviest importer of Seal Skins were unable to borrow money from their regular bankers on Wall-st., and were therefore forced to sell. I had the ready cash and took advantage of the situation, purchasing largely the choicest Alaska Seal Skins for spot cash, and manufacturing them into garments of the newest shapes and styles. My own regular importation orders have been filled, and the goods are now daily arriving, consequently, having paid out a large amount of money recently, I am a little short. In order to raise money to meet obligations I have decided (instead of borrowing) to sell Seal Skin sacques and other fashtonshow itself. Nature, at this juncture, needs something to as-sist it in throwing off the impurities which have collected by chase to buy now instead of waiting until fall. Garments $250 Seal Sacques will be sold for $200. $200 Seal Sacques will be sold for $160. $300 Seal garments will be sold for $235. $400 Seal garments will be sold for $325. $500 Seal garments will be sold for $400.

These prices will remain for a short time only. C. C. SHAYNE, Manufacturer, 103 PRINCE-ST.
